Mur-Len Road. Planning Commission recommended approval 5 to 1.
Kim Hollingsworth, Planning and Development Manager, provided the Council with a presentation regarding this project.

Councilmember Vogt asked if the change in density still met requirements and Ms. Hollingsworth said it did. Ms. Vogt asked if these units would be owner occupied or leased and Ms. Hollingsworth said they would be leased. Ms. Vogt said she was looking forward to this development.

Councilmember Schoonover asked questions about the traffic study and what area was included. Ms. Hollingsworth provided the parameters of the study. He also asked about the reason for the one dissenting vote on the Planning Commission. Ms. Hollingsworth said she didn't know the specific reason but knew there had been lots of discussion regarding density.

Councilmember Gilmore asked if the traffic signal would be installed during phase one of the project and Ms. Hollingsworth said yes and explained that phase two is only the commercial building on the corner.

Mayor Bacon asked questions about traffic signals that City Engineer, Nate Baldwin, answered.

Councilmember Schoonover asked the applicant about other projects they have in the KC metro area. Brandon Ames, with Bach Homes, said they built Steeplechase Apartments in Kansas City Missouri. He also said they like to build and maintain ownership.

Councilmember Vogt asked when they hoped to break ground. Mr. Ames said it would be sometime this year.

Councilmember Felter said she is excited about this project.
