8. NEW CITY COUNCIL BUSINESS

Councilmember Mickelson said he wanted staff to evaluate how to utilize the stimulus funding and was hoping that somehow it could benefit the residents.

Councilmember McCoy thanked staff for all they do to assist in keeping our community safe.

Mayor Bacon asked about when tornado sirens would actually sound.

Fire Chief Jeff DeGraffenreid, said there had been no change to the policy and the sirens would only sound when there was a warning, not just a watch.

Councilmember Campbell asked if the sirens would reach all Olathe residents and Chief DeGraffenreid said there are 43 sirens and should be able to be heard by all residents who are outdoors. He said they are looking at areas of growth to make sure there is coverage.

Councilmember Campbell asked about approvals for new sirens and Chief DeGraffenreid said that they work within the budget process, but they are always approved. Mr. Campbell then asked if they work without power, and Chief DeGraffenreid said they have a battery backup and they are being upgraded to solar powered.

Councilmember Vogt mentioned that winter weather plays havoc on street and creates potholes. She asked staff to remind residents how to report potholes.

Beth Wright, Infrastructure Deputy Director, recommended citizens either call customer service or submit a request through OlatheConnect. She said they have not seen as many this season since the temperatures had not fluctuated as much this past winter.

Councilmember Vogt thanked staff for notifying a resident of a possible water leak and they were able to find a broken pipe and prevent major water damage.

Councilmember Brownlee said she was encouraged to hear of the partnership between K-State and HackerU. She also said she would like more information about the stimulus and how it will be used. Ms. Brownlee also asked for an update from Police Chief Mike Butaud regarding human trafficking.

Councilmember Gilmore said he was happy to hear about the K-State and MNU partnership. He also had questions about how the stimulus money would be able to be used. Mr. Gilmore also asked about affordable housing and said he hoped the City would get in front of the issue, keeping long term goals in mind.

Mayor Bacon said that Mahaffie Farmstead was hosting Spring Break Living History Week and wanted to invite residents to attend. He also said that the new Torchy's Tacos was hosting a friends and family event on Sunday and Monday and the proceeds would benefit the Olathe Mayor's Children's Fund.
